OrthoPediatics Holds Pacesetter Events

Staff Report

Saturday, September 19, 2009

OrthoPediatics held its first United Way drive as a pacesetter company recently.

They held an extended lunch Sept. 1. The company also held a cook-off contest, cornhole tournament and a golf contest. There was a drawing for employee donors to United Way.

Prizes included a vacation day, four tickets to a Fort Wayne Tin Caps baseball game, a Wal-Mart gift card, and an autographed Indianapolis Colts poster.

OrthoPediatics has 32 employees. It is the only company that designs and markets pediatric orthopedic devices exclusively for kids.
